We strongly believe that LNG2019 will maintain its role as the premier event for the industry, as the conference comes to China for the first time this April, providing delegates with a close look at the rapid development of China's LNG market within the global value chain. With support from the State Council of the People's Republic of China and Shanghai Municipal People's Government, we extend a welcome to you on behalf of China's leading energy companies. LNG2019 creates a dedicated environment to connect with current business partners and look at new opportunities.

The LNG2019 Conference provides unparalleled access to hear from China's LNG thought leaders; CNOOC, CNPC, Sinopec, Shenergy Group, Beijing Gas, Shanghai Petroleum Gas Exchange (SHPGX), ENN Group, The Hong Kong & China Gas Company Limited(Towngas), Shenzhen Gas, Zhejiang Energy, Shanghai LNG Company and China LNG Shipping and more will all share their insights.
